

York County DOVIA

Since 1985, the York County DOVIA, Directors of Volunteers in Agencies has provided information, support and professional growth opportunities to individuals who manage volunteer programs. This dynamic organization is an excellent, low cost, high impact, source of support, inspiration and training to anyone in the position of managing volunteers. Membership dues are $20 for an organization, covering all staff/volunteers within an organization or $10 for an individual. For more information refer to the registration form below.

Member Benefits

- Monthly meetings to network, share information, current events and resources.
- Monthly presentations on current issues in volunteerism.
- Quarterly meetings with PAVA, our greater Portland counterpart, to maximize training, programming, networking and resources.
- Annual conference for training and professional development.

Professional, Prepared & Productive

Questions? Please contact: Mimi Mills, 985-6869, mmills@buildcommunity.org