

United Way of York County Day of Caring

United Way of York County, Day of Caring, June 4, 2008

On June 4, 2008 more than 950 volunteers will trade their office equipment and school supplies for rakes, shovels and wheelbarrows. The 950 volunteers will represent more than 70 area businesses and schools. Each of these businesses and schools encourage their employees to participate in the Day of Caring so they may assist a broad spectrum of nonprofits that provide essential services to residents throughout York County.

Through out the day volunteer's complete renovation, carpentry, landscaping, planting, painting and cleaning projects. The quality and magnitude of the work completed is remarkable, new relationships are formed and goodwill is shared. The Day of Caring is an inspiring event and a wonderful way for so many to work together, help others and contributes to the quality of life we all enjoy in York County.

Please join us for the 2008 Day of Caring!

Volunteer registration for the Day of Caring will begin on March 24 and volunteer teams will be able to select projects in early May.

Nonprofit agencies may post projects February 24- April 4, 2008
